Mary, Our Companion in Lent

Saying Yes Again

Dear Friends:

Lent is often described as a season of return — a return to God, a return to prayer, a return to what matters most. It is not simply about giving things up, but about making room for something deeper: conversion of heart. And the Church, in her wisdom, never asks us to walk this road alone. She places before us a companion, a guide, and a mother: the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Mary didn't have everything figured out. She wasn't given a script. She was given an invitation. "Will you trust me?" God asked. And she said yes. Not once — but again and again. At the Annunciation. In Bethlehem. When she lost Jesus in the Temple. When people misunderstood Him. And finally, when she stood at the foot of the Cross and watched her Son die.

Lent asks us to do the same thing Mary did: to keep trusting when we don't understand, to keep praying when we feel dry, to keep showing up when it would be easier to walk away.

St. Augustine reminds us that Mary conceived Christ first in her heart before she conceived Him in her womb. In other words, her greatness was not primarily biological but spiritual. She believed. She trusted. She surrendered. That interior obedience is the heart of Lent. Before we change our habits, we must change our hearts. Mary shows us how.

St. Thomas Aquinas teaches that Mary's "yes" at the Annunciation was given freely and in faith — a consent that allowed salvation to enter the world. Lent is a time to reclaim that freedom, to say "yes" again where we have grown hesitant, distracted, or weary. Mary's fiat is not just a moment in history; it is a pattern for every disciple.

The early Church Fathers saw Mary as the image of what the Church is meant to be — receptive, faithful, and enduring. St. Ambrose, in particular, speaks of Mary as the model believer, one who carries Christ into the world even when the road is difficult. And Lent, if we are honest, can be difficult. It exposes our attachments, our impatience, our resistance to grace. Mary teaches us how to carry the cross without dropping it — how to stand when others flee.

At the foot of the Cross, Mary does not understand everything. But she remains. That is perhaps the most Lenten lesson of all. To stay. To keep praying. To keep trusting. To keep showing up even when the answers do not come quickly.

This Lent, let's walk with Mary deliberately. Pray the Rosary, or at least one decade of the Rosary slowly. Sit with her at the Cross. Ask her to teach you how to say "yes" again — not only to the easy things, but to the hard ones as well.

Mary always leads us where Lent is leading: not to emptiness, but to Easter. Not to loss, but to life. Not to darkness, but to the Risen Christ. She always and only points to her Son. Let us ask her intercession, that this Lent may truly change us.

Fr. Peter

PRAY FOR OUR OCIA PARTICIPANTS

Prayer cards for each OCIA participant will be available in the JGS gathering space. We invite parishioners to take a card, pray for that individual, and return it with a note of encouragement if you wish.

Please place returned cards in the box on the table or bring them to the church office by Holy Thursday. Your prayers and support mean so much as they prepare to receive the Sacraments at Easter.

Jesus the Good Shepherd Easter Flower Donations

Help us beautifully decorate our church for Easter! Donations for Easter flowers may be made in memory or in honor of a loved one.

To contribute, please:

- Call the church office
- Donate online through our website

Thank you for helping us celebrate the joy of the Resurrection!

FROM THE CATECHISM

CCC 1002 — “Christ will raise us up ‘on the last day’; but it is also true that, in a certain way, we have already risen with Christ... The Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in us, giving life to our mortal bodies.”

CCC 1431 — “Interior repentance is a radical reorientation of our whole life, a return, a conversion to God with all our heart, an end of sin, a turning away from evil... At the same time it entails the desire and resolution to change one’s life, with hope in God’s mercy and trust in the help of his grace.”

CCC 1816 — “The disciple of Christ must not only keep the faith and live on it, but also profess it, confidently bear witness to it, and spread it... Service of and witness to the faith are necessary for salvation.”
